

General Elective (GE) Selection Process

1. Information about all General Elective Subjects offered by the Institute:

- a. Name & Syllabus of all Generic Elective subjects offered by all the departments is available on the Institute Website.
- b. Read the syllabus of all 4 General Elective Subjects except the General Elective subject offered by your department.
- c. Students have to select only one subject out of 4 General Elective Subjects based on their interest.

2. Rules & Regulations for Selecting General Elective Subject:

- a. Students are advised to read all the instructions carefully.
- b. One student can apply only for one GE Subject.
- c. Students cannot apply for the subject offered by their own Department; they have to apply for Only One GE Subject offered by other 4 Departments.
- d. Admission Process will be carried out on First Come First Serve Basis by system.
- e. Intake Capacity for Each General Elective Subject is 120.
- f. Once 120 seats get filled, the respective Generic Elective Subject will not be available for selection. Students have to apply for other available General Elective subject.
- g. The student will loose academic year if failed to apply within stipulated time.

3. GE Selection process.

- a. The GE selection process will be carried out through Google Form. The class coordinators will share Web portal links in the respective student groups.
- b. The Google Form will be activated at sharp 12.15 PM on 21st February 2022
- c. On successful form submission you will receive a GE selection receipt through email. Provide correct email id while filling up GE selection form. Failing which you will loose claim on selected GE subject.
- d. In the case of any query consult the respective class coordinator. For contact information refer to the GE Selection Web Portal.
- e. Kindly make a note of the fact that the email ID and time of form submission is registered in the system.
- f. Only one submission for each student is allowed and no editing after form submission

4. About GE Selection Portal

GE Selection portal contains the following information:

- a. Name & Syllabus of all Generic Elective subjects offered by all the departments
- b. Name and contact details of GE coordinators and class coordinators.
- c. GE selection links
- d. Links to user manual and GE selection guidelines document.